

IPRA Ambassador

IPRA is looking to enlist one volunteer from each agency (with a current IPRA member) throughout the state of Illinois to help with getting information out to its members. We are looking for someone who is energetic and willing to spend less than one (1) hour per week to help spread the word regarding education and networking opportunities as well as serve as IPRA's "go-to" for your agency.

Duties include:

- Review the IPRA Website for "What New" and share at agency staff meetings
- Read/print the IPRA e-newsletter to share at agency staff/departmental meetings
- Serve as point of contact between agency and IPRA for communication of upcoming programs and events
- Serve as point of contact for your agency for survey and resource collection requests

If you are interested in servicing as the Ambassador for your agency,
