PURPOSE OF THIS PACKET

The purpose of this packet is to provide you with all the necessary details for your group's participation in the annual Illinois Park & Recreation Association's (IPRA) Teen Ski & Snowboard Overnight. There are three sections to this packet. The first section defines general information for this event, the second and third sections are forms that must be completed for participation at this event. Please carefully read all sections and complete all necessary paperwork. All paperwork from Section Three is due back to IPRA by FRIDAY, JANUARY 21, 2011.

SECTION ONE: GENERAL INFORMATION

Event Description & Facility Features

The IPRA Teen Ski & Snowboard Overnight is a statewide activity open to all recreation agencies in Illinois. Groups may bring participants between the ages of 11-19 years old. At midnight, Chestnut Mountain is closed to the public and the 140-acres overlooking the Mississippi River are only available to IPRA participants. Chestnut Mountain's terrain is geared for all levels of skiers and boarders. They have a 475-foot vertical drop that spans for 3,500 feet through 19 different runs, ranging from novice to black diamond. Additional features include, but are not limited to:

- 17 Lighted Slopes: 5 Beginner, 9 Difficult, & 3 Most Difficult
- Farside Terrain Park: 7 Acre Snowboard Park with Half Pipe, Quarter Pipes, & Fun Boxes
- 5 Chairlifts: 2 Quad & 3 Triple
- 3 Surface Lifts
- FREE Ski & Snowboard Lessons
- The Village Ski Center: Rental Area & Pro-Shop
- 2,400 Sets of Rental Gear (350 Snowboard)
- Campfire
- Video Game Room
- Snack Bar

For information on Chestnut Mountain, please visit their website and/or use the following phone numbers for further day-of details.

Ski Information: (800) 397-1320 • Snow Report: (800) 798-0098

Cafeteria & Banquet Room

- Each agency will receive a sign to place on and to hold tables for their agencies' supplies and food. We also suggest this area as a place to have your participants check-in throughout the evening.
- Please note, this area becomes very congested with participants. We recommend that participants use coin lockers and storage racks at the facility to alleviate congestion. NO ski/snowboard equipment is permitted in this area.
- Facility rules are posted and are to be enforced by all chaperones/supervisors.
- Each agency is responsible for cleaning up their area.

Event Check-in Procedures & Add-ons

In an effort to efficiently and safely accommodate all groups participating in this event, there will be six check-in/ departure times. You will be required to select a time on your Agency Registration Form. These timeslots include:

Timeslot 1:	Arrival 9:00pm	Departure 3:00am	Timeslot 2:	Arrival 9:30pm	Departure 3:30am
Timeslot 3:	Arrival 10:00pm	Departure 4:00am	Timeslot 4:	Arrival 10:30pm	Departure 4:30am
Timeslot 5:	Arrival 11:00pm	Departure 5:00am	Timeslot 6:	Arrival 11:00pm	Departure 5:00am

Upon arrival to Chestnut Mountain, please follow these procedures:

1. Pull vehicle up to the front entrance of Chestnut Mountain.
2. A Chestnut Mountain Employee will enter the bus and address your group before entering the facility. PLEASE STAY ON YOUR BUS UNTIL THEY ARE FINISHED WITH THEIR SAFETY TALK WITH YOUR GROUP.
3. One chaperone/supervisor from your group may leave the bus and report to the Check-in Table. It is critical to ensure everything is clipped together in separate piles and completed/signed, or your registrants will not be able to participate!!!
4. Please have the chaperone/supervisor from your group bring the following items with you to the Check-in Table:
 - Two Rosters with Agency Contact Form clipped on top of pile.
 - IPRA Waivers with Agency Contact Form clipped on top of pile.
 - Chestnut Mountain Waiver with Agency Contact Form clipped on top of pile.
 - Code of Conduct Form with Agency Contact Form clipped on top of pile.
5. At the Check-in Table, you will need to verify your group's registration information (number of ski rentals, snowboard rentals, lift tickets, etc.). Add-ons may be done at this time. To ensure a quick and efficient check-in process, please know all of your numbers before stepping up to the table. If you have adjustments to your groups order, you may make them at this time. You may be able to sell tickets back to IPRA the evening of the event, as long as we have met our minimum number of participants guaranteed to Chestnut Mountain.
6. Confirmation of your volunteer shift will also be completed at the Check-in Table.
7. The chaperone/supervisor from your group will then return to the bus and distribute lift tickets, attachment wickets, and rental forms. (These are mailed to your agency prior to the event, please remember to bring them and distribute them at this time so that items are not lost, as we are not able to replace lost/stolen lift tickets).

8. Carefully read each lift ticket, as the ticket indicates if the participant has a rental or not.

9. Exit your bus and enter the Village Ski Center. Ski/Snowboard Renters will be fitted with their gear in this area. Please see map enclosed in this packet for further details about rental area.
10. We strongly encourage all participants to use the lockers for storing their boots, bags, etc. Lockers are 75¢.

Event Fees & Payment

Your agency will be billed promptly after this event, but payment arrangements must be made in advance. Your final confirmation of numbers at the site will be used for invoicing your group from IPRA. As long as we meet our minimum number of attendees you may be able to buy and/or sell back tickets/rentals on-site.

Registrations will be accommodated on a first-come, first-served basis. Late registration forms will be accommodated as possible.

SNOWBOARD EQUIPMENT IS LIMITED, THE SOONER YOU REGISTER, THE BETTER.

Items to Review with Participants

- Code of Conduct Forms: Before arriving to Chestnut Mountain, please review the Code of Conduct with all of your participants. A copy of this form has been included in your packet. Please be sure to make copies of this form and have your participants sign it. These will be collected as described in the “Event Check-in Procedures & Add-ons” section.
- Two Rosters with Agency Contact Form: Please clip two copies of your roster together with a copy of your Agency Contact Form together. These will be collected as described in the “Event Check-in Procedures & Add-ons” section. These rosters are used only for emergency purposes. All information will be kept confidential.
- Chestnut Mountain Waiver with Agency Contact Form: Please clip all of your Chestnut Waiver Forms together with a copy of your Agency Contact Form on top. These forms must be completed and signed as described. Failure to do so will result in participants not being able to participate. These will be collected as described in the “Event Check-in Procedures & Add-ons” section.
- IPRA Waiver with Agency Contact Form: Please clip all of your IPRA Waiver Forms together with a copy of your Agency Contact Form on top. These forms must be completed and signed as described. Failure to do so will result in participants not being able to participate. These will be collected as described in the “Event Check-in Procedures & Add-ons” section.

Items to Bring

- Appropriate Apparel: Please bring appropriate clothing for the outdoor conditions. All chaperones/supervisors will be given a red event t-shirt at the event .
- Cell Phones & Electronic Devices: It is advised that participants should limit their carry of electronic devices. Chaperones/Supervisors should carry cell phones for contact in the event of an emergency, but be cognizant that phones may not receive reception at the site.
- Spending Money
- Food: Outside food is permitted at the venue. A concession stand is also available.

Emergency Procedures

In the event of an emergency the following is to be conducted:

- The P.A. System, used for emergencies or announcements, is located at any telephone. Ask for assistance from Chestnut Mountain Staff. Announcements can be heard throughout the resort, but must be listened to carefully.
- Teen Committee will communicate via cell phones and/or walkie talkies.
- Agencies should check the Ski Patrol Room for injuries hourly.
- There will be one-three designees from the IPRA Teen Committee who will stay in the Ski Patrol Room during the event to help in the coordination of finding chaperones of injured persons.
- The Ski Patrol will contact the Event Supervisors in the Cafeteria and in the Banquet Room with any injuries.
- If your agency has someone who is injured, you will be responsible for assisting with the injured participant.
- Ski Patrol does have a wheelchair available to transport injured persons not needing hospital care to the agency's table or bus.
- Injured persons will be transported by ambulance or Chestnut Mountain vehicle to the hospital recommended by Ski Patrol. This can include Freeport Hospital in Galena (8 miles from site) or Mercy Hospital in Dubuque, Iowa (23 miles from site).
- A chaperone will be required to stay with the injured person at the hospital.
- Each agency is responsible for having their own plan formed for returning injured persons to bus or back home (i.e. having parents pick-up injured person, bus pick-up injured person, or agency vehicle on-call).

Transportation

Each agency is responsible for arranging their own transportation to this event. It is highly recommended that you work with surrounding agencies (park districts, recreation departments, schools, etc.) to have cooperative transportation arrangements. This helps to fill up large coach busses and/or have staff designated to safely drive for this all night event.

The Illinois Park & Recreation Association has obtained discounted coach bus pricing for this trip through Coach USA Chicago. Don Middleton is the contact person through Coach USA Chicago for your agency to contact for the coordination of transportation arrangements. Your agency is responsible for its contract and payment arrangements with the busing company. You will NOT make any payments to IPRA for busing.

Don Middleton, Sports Travel Coordinator, Coach USA Chicago

4400 South Racine Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60609

773-890-2075 : Phone 773-533-7446 : Fax

For more information on the rates for the discounted transportation, please see page 7.

During the event, there are areas designated for bus drivers to rest. Please obtain this information and keys to the bunk rooms at the Check-in Table.

Code of Conduct

Teens attending the I.P.R.A. TEEN COMMITTEE events are expected to exhibit appropriate behavior at all times. The following guidelines have been developed to make the event safe and enjoyable for all teens in attendance. Additional guidelines may be developed if deemed necessary by staff.

- Participants must take direction from EVENT SUPERVISOR as needed.
- Anyone stealing will be turned over to local authorities.
- Anyone smoking, using alcohol or drugs will be turned over to local authorities.
- Fighting, kicking, biting, pinching or other immature behavior will not be tolerated. Parent/guardian will be called to pick you up.
- Participating in or promoting any gang activity will not be tolerated (i.e. intimidation, clothing containing insignias, displaying symbols, etc.) Non-compliance as noted by chaperones will result in police action. You will sit in security's office until your parent/guardian receives you.
- Foul and abusive language, vandalism and weapons are prohibited.
- No resisting or interfering with an employee or officer.

Ski and Snowboard Responsibility

- Ski safe and have fun.
- Prior to using any lift, you must have the knowledge and ability to load, ride and unload safely.
- Ski under control and in such a manner you can stop or avoid other skiers or objects.
- People ahead of you have the right of way. It is your responsibility to avoid them.
- You must not stop where you obstruct a trail or cannot be seen from above.
- Whenever starting down hill or merging on to a trail, look up and yield to the right of way.
- Observe all posted signs and warnings. Keep off closed trails and keep out of closed areas.
- Take your time. We are on a recreational trip!

Enforcement:

- For behavior incidences, as deemed by supervisors:
 - Teen is called on behavior.
 - Parent/Guardian is notified.
 - Decision is made with parent/guardian, supervisor and teen.
- For other incidents, police and parent/guardian is contacted to pick up participant.
- A decision of action is made by all: supervisor, parent/guardian and police.
