

Daily Public Cruises

No Reservations Necessary

Come aboard and enjoy travel from the era of Mark Twain on one of our daily afternoon sightseeing trips. Bordered by a Forest Preserve, the Fox River here has changed little since the Pottawatomie Indians inhabited its banks.

On weekdays, tickets can be purchased from the Captain of the St. Charles Belle as you board at our dock just north of the Pottawatomie Park parking lot. On weekends, the Belle leaves from the dock just south of the miniature golf course in the park. An attendant will greet you at the end of this dock where you can purchase tickets.

Our Public Cruises are a scenic, four mile trip on the Fox River and last about one hour. There is no food service on our Public Cruises, but soft drinks and bottled water are available for purchase on board.
