

Lodging - US RevPAR +4.2% Y/Y Last Week; Group up strong (on an easy y/y comp)

Group was -6.8% in 2017 vs. 2016; last week was +6.2% (flattish for 2-yr stack)

What's Incremental To Our View

Overall U.S. RevPAR was +4.2% Y/Y for the week ending 7/28/2018, per STR, up from the prior week's result of +3.0%. (2-year stacked RevPAR was +5.7% vs. +3.3% in the prior week.) Independent hotels (about 1/3rd of the data set) were +3.0% y/y. Luxury (+6.4%) was the strongest chain scale for branded hotels; Upscale was the weakest at +3.4%. Midscale (+3.9%) and Upper Midscale (+3.7%) also underperformed the overall US hotel industry average. Within Upper Upscale & Luxury class hotels, Group (+6.2% vs. +5.8% prior week) was stronger than Transient (+3.2% vs. +1.5% prior week).

While last week was a largely clean comp, we note that Group was quite weak in 2017 vs. 2016 with double-digit Group RevPAR declines in Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, LA, Nashville, Seattle, and Tampa. Unsurprisingly, a number of these markets (among others) had double-digit positive RevPAR last week.

- RevPAR results were largely consistent across the days of the week.
- Hurricane-impacted markets had mixed performance (see below for detail).

For the month of July, we estimate that full-service branded domestic hotels (the typical Hilton [HLT, $78.66, Buy], Hyatt [H, $78.23, Hold], or Marriott [MAR, $127.84, Hold] hotel) will finish at approximately +2-3% (unchanged from our prior estimate). We estimate that the overall industry will finish approximately +0-1% (unchanged from our prior estimate). Please note that reported monthly results include hotels that are not in the weekly data set.

RevPAR details:

- Luxury was the strongest chain scale. Upper Midscale and Midscale underperformed by 270 bps and 250 bps, respectively: Luxury RevPAR (+6.4%), Upper Upscale (+5.6%), Upscale (+3.4%), Upper Midscale (+3.7%), Midscale (+3.9%), and Economy (+4.0%). Independent hotels (+3.0%) underperformed headline U.S. RevPAR.
- Within Upper Upscale & Luxury class hotels, Group was stronger than Transient: Transient segment (individual business and leisure travelers) RevPAR was +3.2% (vs. +1.5% last week) and Group segment RevPAR was +6.2% (vs. +5.8% last week).

What's Inside

Weekly STR results and analysis

- Chicago (+14.0%) was the strongest of the top five markets: Boston (+8.7%), LA (+3.3%), NYC (+5.6%), and DC (+0.1%).
- Other relevant markets:
 - San Francisco was significantly up: RevPAR was +16.6% vs. +5.7% last week. We anticipate y/y comps will be relatively easy in 3Q as the Moscone Convention Center's North and South halls were closed from April to August 2017.
 - Texas results were mixed:Dallas RevPAR was -0.1% (vs. +5.2% last week). Houston RevPAR was +16.3% (vs. +0.6% last week). Note that FEMA ended financial assistance for some Texans in Houston hotels on July 1st.
 - Hurricane-impacted markets in FL had mixed results: Miami (-6.4% vs. +2.8% last week); Orlando (+5.2% vs. +7.4% last week).
 - Oahu results were moderately negative last week. We continue to believe that there is insufficient evidence (so far) to suggest a major demand shift from the volcano eruption on the Big Island (the holiday shift adds additional noise to the analysis). Oahu was -1.2% vs. +0.7% running 28 days. Comparatively, U.S. Resort RevPAR was +2.1% last week vs. +1.6% running 28 days. As we previously noted, we believe some of the Big Island hotel demand that chooses to stay on another island may be more likely to stay on Maui or Kauai due to the comparable destination appeal and less likely to stay in/near Waikiki (where the majority of Oahu hotel supply is based).
 - In part due to the general strength of the Oahu market (particularly in terms of occupancy), it is difficult for us to determine the measurability of impact from demand that is choosing to stay on Oahu from the Big Island. STR noted similarly in an article on HotelNewsNow published on June 18th. That being said, we do not have granular data on the Maui and Kauai markets where we believe the greatest demand shift (on a relative basis) is most likely to occur.
 - On a positive note, Norwegian Cruise Line (NCLH, $50.03, Buy) resumed calls to the Big Island in mid-June. Additionally, some tour operators appear to be adjusting itineraries in light of the volcano disruption, which might alleviate some travelers concerns about staying on the island.
 - We believe a bigger test for the Big Island is forthcoming as potential Hawaii travelers determine whether to stay on the Big Island or adjust their travels elsewhere. Many vacationers plan a Hawaii vacation well in advance and it is possible we have yet to see in the data a more measurable impact from potential travelers who decided after the volcano news to avoid staying on the Big Island.

The lodging and leisure stocks:

Overall for the stocks, we think the continuation of improving trends signals an opportunity to grind higher and favor hotel owners (REITs) over the managers/franchisors as the hotel owners have the greatest sensitivity to changes in RevPAR. The rule of thumb for earnings sensitivity to a 1 point change in RevPAR is a 5 point change in EBIT for an owned hotel versus a 1 point change in EBIT for a hotel franchisor (a hotel manager falls somewhere between, depending on the degree of incentive management fees in the contract).

The rating system effective as of Oct. 7, 2016:

STRH Rating System for Equity Securities

SunTrust Robinson Humphrey (STRH) rates individual equities using a three-tiered system. Each stock is rated relative to the broader market (generally the S&P 500) over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated).

Buy (B) – the stock's total return is expected to outperform the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Hold (H) – the stock's total return is expected to perform in line with the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Sell (S) – the stock's total return is expected to underperform the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Not Rated (NR) – STRH does not have an investment rating or opinion on the stock

Coverage Suspended (CS) – indicates that STRH's rating and/or target price have been temporarily suspended due to applicable regulations and/or STRH Management discretion. The previously published rating and target price should not be relied upon STRH analysts have a price target on the stocks that they cover, unless otherwise indicated. The price target represents that analyst's expectation of where the stock will trade in the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated). If an analyst believes that there are insufficient valuation drivers and/or investment catalysts to derive a positive or negative investment view, they may elect with the approval of STRH Research Management not to assign a target price; likewise certain stocks that trade under $5 may exhibit volatility whereby assigning a price target would be unhelpful to making an investment decision. As such, with Research Management's approval, an analyst may refrain from assigning a target to a sub-$5 stock.

Legend for Rating and Price Target History Charts:

The prior rating system until Oct. 7, 2016:

3 designations based on total returns* within a 12-month period

- · Buy total return ≥ 15% (10% for low-Beta securities)
- · Reduce total return ≤ negative 10% (5% for low Beta securities)
- · Neutral total return is within the bounds above

- · NR NOT RATED, STRH does not provide equity research coverage
- · CS Coverage Suspended
- *Total return (price appreciation + dividends); Price targets are within a 12-month period, unless otherwise noted; Low Beta defined as securities with an average Beta of 0.8 or less, using Bloomberg's 5-year average
