Health Promotion Leader III

Workplace health promotion / wellness programs save health care dollars, improve employee health morale, and productivity.
LGRMS Health Promotion Services assists local governments in building comprehensive programs.

LGRMS, working with ACCG and GMA as sponsors, is offering five interactive workshops during March to educate members on how to implement effective solutions to help control increasing healthcare costs.

LEARN:

- To identify workplace assets, needs, & community resources
- Leadership Skills for Health Promotion
- To Plan Effective Programs about Community Resources
- Learn about LGRMS-HPS no-cost resources
- How other Local Governments have built effective programs
- Updates to healthcare solutions

LEAVE WITH:

- Tools to access program support
- Twelve-month action plan & Grant Checklist
- Resource and reference manual
- The keys to successful programming and incentive management
- Being a "Champion" of wellness

This program is useful for individuals responsible as health promotion leaders/champions, administrators, HR and personnel directors, clerks, health/safety coordinators, and wellness/health benefit coordinators.

The workshop is FREE to local government officials and staff who are members of ACCG and GMA health insurance programs. Non-member fee is $50 per person. Pre-registration is required; space is limited.
