

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

What: Orange County Parks and Recreation is looking for volunteers in the parks, landscape architecture, and planning professions to evaluate the parks in Orange County. Groups of up to four people will be driven by park's staff to evaluate up to ten parks based on a questionnaire provided to you.

Why: By providing your professional opinion in evaluating the parks you will be helping Orange County Parks identify our strengths and weaknesses. This evaluation will be utilized as part of the Orange County Parks and Recreation Master Plan that is currently under development.

When: Saturday, February 22, 2014 (tentative)
8:00am-5:00pm
Lunch will be provided

Where: Volunteers will gather in the Dolphin Room at the Barnett Park Administration Building
4801 West Colonial Drive

Contact: Camille Seabrook
407-836-6261
camille.seabrook@ocfl.net

