

PAST PRESIDENT GEORGE KAYE OBITUARY

It is with sadness that we report George Kaye of Chestnut Hill, Mass., passed away on February 14, 2014. He was the beloved husband of Lise Kaye, loving father of Christine Kaye and her husband Adam Rosell and Justin Kaye. He was the cherished grandfather of both Aidan and Shane Rosell.

His death was celebrated in Boston, Mass., at a memorial service on Saturday, March 1, 2014. Several ASHHRA members delivered tributes to George along with his children. A gospel choir provided a special music tribute to George called "Goin Up Yonder."

George was President of ASHHRA during 1989 which was the Silver Jubilee, 25th anniversary of ASHHRA. The Silver Jubilee Meeting was celebrated in Honolulu, Hawaii. George made incredible contributions to ASHHRA during, before and after his tenure particularly in the areas of cultural diversity and AIDS in the workplace.

George's final wish, in lieu of flowers or donations was to provide acts of kindness to family and friends and pay it forward...so George!
