

2012 SAR Architecture for Health Spring Conference

Chautauqua 3.0 on Regional Healthcare Architecture

18 May 2012 | Madren Conference Center | Clemson, South Carolina

“Better, Faster, Smarter”

SCHEDULE

8:30-9:00 Check-In | Late Registration (if space is available) | Continental Breakfast

Session 1:
9:15-10:45

Keynote Address
Fable Hospital 2.0: The Business Case for Building Better Hospitals
Speaker: Blair Sadler, J.D., Senior Fellow
Institute for Healthcare Improvement
Faculty - UCSD School of Medicine and
Rady School of Management

Session 2:
11:00-12:30

Panel Discussion
Facilities Design for Patient and Family-Centered Care in a Cost Containment World

The Mandate for Quality of Care and Safety Improvements and Facilities Design Implications

Speaker: Rick Foster, Senior VP
Quality of Care and Patient Safety
SCHA

The Business Case: The Mandate of Cost Containment implications overlaying the Quality of Care and Safety Mandate

Speaker: Mark Lyles, Chief Strategic Officer
Medical University of South Carolina

Moderator: Byron M. Edwards, AIA, ACHA

12:30-2:00

Lunch

Session 3:
2:00-3:30

Better: Increasing Value, Reducing Risk, Improving Outcome, Federally Qualified health centers in rural Mississippi

Speaker: Philip Patrick Sun, AIA, ACHA, NCARB,
Chief Planning Officer, Delta Health Center

Session 4:
3:45-5:15

Integrated Project Delivery

Speaker: Randy Keiser, VP Healthcare Group
Turner Construction

Earn a potential of 6 CE Credits

hotel reservations (reservations under AIA SC):

register now!

register online www.aiasc.org

LIMITED to the first 125 registrants

The Martin Inn 888.654.9020 or 864.654.9020
conference rate $99.00

AIA Member Cost $150.00
Non-AIA Members $200.00
Student|Faculty $ 75.00

South Atlantic Region

Academy of Architecture for Health