Continental partners with Hills Commercial Laundry

Oshkosh, Wis.—Continental Girbau Inc. (Continental) recently partnered with Hills Commercial Laundry, in Anchorage, Ala., to provide on-premise laundry equipment throughout Alaska. As a result, the company will represent Continental's complete line of on-premise washer-extractors, drying tumblers and ironers.

Hills Commercial Laundry carefully examines commercial and on-premise laundry operations to provide laundry solutions that boost productivity and efficiency, according to owner Rod Hill. "We help with laundry development, renovation, efficiency, equipment, parts and service," he said.

"The Hills Commercial Laundry team brings 60 years of experience, premium services to new and existing customers throughout their service area," added Joel Jorgensen, Continental vice president of sales. "They work closely with fire departments, vet clinics, nursing homes, hotels, hospitals, clinics, fire departments and commercial laundries to improve laundry throughput and efficiency."
