

The Hyatt Lodge
At McDonald's Campus
Oak Brook, IL

LifeNetSM - Building Relationships Through Authentic Networking

This session will provide you specific reasons why networking can work for everyone and techniques you can use to improve the value from your time investment. LifeNetSM is a framework you can use across your professional, family, community and motivational/spiritual activities. Networking is the process of expanding your individual contacts and converting those that make sense into valuable relationships. You will be a better CFMA member too.

REGISTER NOW

Breakout Session – 4:15-5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, September 27th
Presented by Rick Julien

Retired from Public Accounting after 32 years providing thought leadership and direction around the strategy, marketing, sales and execution in "start-up" risk related businesses i.e., Corporate Governance, Internal Audit Outsourcing, Enterprise Risk Management, IT Audit, FCPA, etc.

Hired and coached experienced professionals through to becoming partners in Big 4/Top 10 CPA firms/large consulting firms

- Spoke nationally/internationally and authored thought leadership pieces on Corporate Governance, IA, Risk Management, Networking, Talent

- Participated on Audit Committee roundtables

- Built long term relationships through networking, follow up and follow through

- Conducted corporate governance audits for Board of Directors

- 2016 MidWest • CFMA Regional Conference Committee member

Special 2 Bonuses for DK Cole Clients and Friends

Free Unique Networking discussion that goes beyond sales

Rick Julien - is available to discuss this topic with you or others in your company that would benefit from improving their networking "savvy" to better support your business. Please call Rick at 630.282.7748 to discuss LifeNetSM and determine if there is value to your organization in using LifeNetSM techniques.

Free Hiring Manager Training

Kathy Cole – is available to make a presentation to your hiring managers on Recruiting and Talent Acquisition techniques needed to compete and win the war for talent in 2016 and beyond. Please call Kathy at 630.282.7747 to make a reservation for this powerful interactive discussion that will change the way many hiring managers think about recruiting.