

THE BOMA NEW YORK 2017 CIVIC BETTERMENT AWARD

Each year, BOMA New York proudly presents the Civic Betterment Award.

The award is presented to a New York-based organization who has dedicated substantial time and effort in trying to help solve the problems of New York, while enriching the lives of city residents.

The award is judged by BOMA New York's Civic Betterment Committee. The Committee is comprised of BOMA New York members in good standing who understand the true nature of civic engagement. Committee members interview all nominees and make evaluations based on involvement and contributions.

Nomination Guidelines:
