

2016 Community Survey: Portlanders' ratings of city livability drop to new low

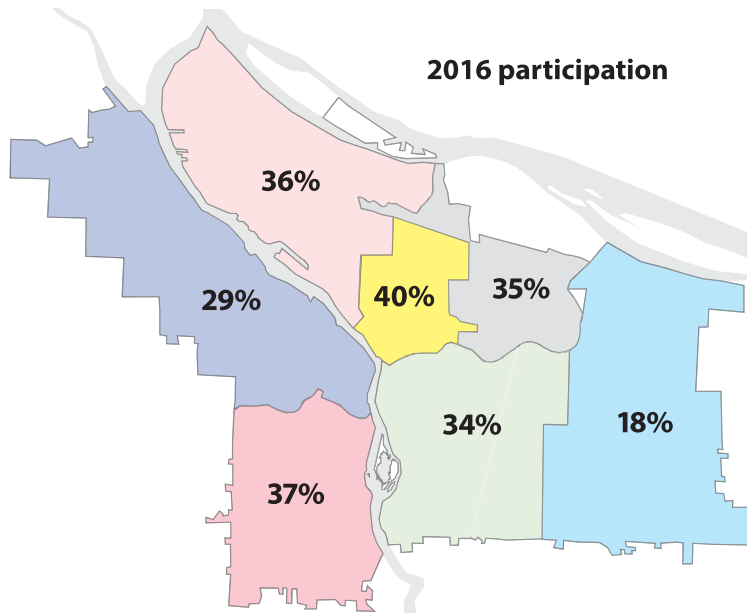

Highlights - November 2016

Respondents viewed several indicators more negatively than in prior years

A positive result: Participation increased in Parks' programs

Historic Lows

40%

rate City's overall delivery of services as good or very good

23%

rate overall street maintenance as good or very good

20%

rate opportunities to influence City government as good or very good

Differences reported among demographic groups

Some demographic groups rate city livability worse than others: 1) 60 and older 2) Have lived in same residence for 10 years or more 3) Earn less than $75,000 4) Less than a bachelor's degree.

