

Certified Endoscope Reprocessing Trainer Program for Surgical Endoscopes

Two day Train the Trainer Course on reprocessing of Olympus surgical endoscopes. Learn about endoscope nomenclature, endoscope care & handling and troubleshooting common endoscope related problems. Receive training material and information on best practice, infection control, quality assurance and competency checklists for reprocessing all models of Olympus endoscope utilized in your surgical endoscopy department. Learn common reprocessing errors & how they correspond to endoscope repairs. Gain the knowledge & skills necessary to develop & implement a continuing education and quality assurance program in your facility or region, to assess staff competency. Receive hands-on training on endoscope reprocessing.

Date: September 15 & 16, 2014
Location: Olympus Canada
25 Leek Cr.
Richmond Hill, On L4B 4B3

Olympus Endoscopes: Attendees will receive hands-on training on the following:
Olympus Cystoscope, Uretroscope, Intubation Scope, ENTScope, Rigid Endoscopes and instrumentation and any other specific inventory

Time: Registration & Continental Breakfast 8:00am
Course timing 8:30am – 5:00pm
*Please note, lunch and breaks are included
(please advise of any food restrictions)

Fee: $500.00

Registration
& Information: Clinical Administrative Assistant
maureen.lloyd@olympus.com

Deadline Aug 29, 2014

*This course can be claimed for 15 continuing education/continuing learning hours.