Where There's Smoke, There's Fire – Fire Prevention

Tuesday, October 17, 2017 (1:00 PM CT)

30 minutes | Complimentary | Advance registration required

It Will Never Happen to Me! This is a common thought and misconception of many businesses today as it pertains to their individual fire risk. Unfortunately, they don't realize until after the fact, that simple prevention strategies could prevent most fires that occur today. Fire Prevention will focus on steps a business should take, every day, to help prevent disastrous fire losses. We will discuss steps a business can take to ensure expedited recovery and the ability to resume servicing customers as quickly as possible.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Risk Managers
- Operations Managers
- Owners/Operators

KEY DISCUSSION POINTS

- Analyze the main cause of fire across all industries
- Address these fire risks through consistent risk management
- Prepare for fire or other disasters to get your business back up and running

After registering, you will receive a confirmation e-mail and calendar appointment.
