Stop Shakedown Lawsuits is an unincorporated association operating under Section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. Stop Shakedown Lawsuits has opened a non-reportable bank account to fund the legal, research and consulting expenses associated with drafting a potential statewide ballot measure pertaining to the Private Attorney General Act of 2004 and subsequent amendments thereto dealing with Labor Code violation penalties. In the event that this project moves forward to the signature-gathering and campaign phases, a separate bank account and reportable committee will be established in compliance with the requirements of the Fair Political Practices Commission and the Political Reform Act.

Contributions to Stop Shakedown Lawsuits are not subject to any contribution limits and can be accepted from any source other than foreign principals. Stop Shakedown Lawsuits (FEIN: 81-2790987) is exempt from taxation under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(4).
