Learn to Spring Your Money From Energy Traps at MAXIMIZE: 2015 Multifamily Asset Management Conference

By Tom Beaton, CPM, The Dolben Company

2015 National Apartment Association Chairman of the Board

Do you know how much money is trapped in your energy and utility expenses? No? Then you'll definitely want to register now for MAXIMIZE: 2015 Multifamily Asset Management Conference—October 12-14 at the Omni Amelia Island Plantation Resort in Amelia Island, Fla.—to get a look at new ideas, leading-edge technology and fresh methods for creating additional revenue across your portfolio.

The session, "Return on Energy: Portfolio Sustainability Strategies" isn't your grandfather's energy benchmarking presentation: Presenters will focus on improving asset value from acquisition to sale on energy-hog communities (which results in a 5X return on investment); strategies and tactics for gaining resident buy-in of energy cost-savings initiatives; and a detailed list of sustainability projects that result in annual savings of $50,000.

What does $50,000 do to your asset value? Find out by registering today at www.naahq.org/maximize to be first in line for the information, insight and answers necessary to boost your bottom line.

Find Out How You Measure Up With the 2015 NAA Survey of Operating Income & Expenses

Success tomorrow requires one to take care of business today—that's why leading communities turn to the 2015 NAA Income & Expense Survey in Rental Apartment Communities (IES). Results of the 27th annual IES are available at www.naahq.org/15IES.

The report presents data from garden and mid-rise/high-rise properties further segmented by individually metered and master-metered utilities allowing for definitive benchmarking.

The survey includes an executive summary, detailed data, reports and charts about rental communities. More than 100 single markets are available. Each report provides comprehensive data and economic analysis including: market rent, metro area income and expenses, subsidized properties and utilities. Data for the 2015 survey is based on fiscal year 2014 data. The NAA member price is $175 for a single market and $625 for the full report. The price for non-members is $350 for a single market and $1,050 for the full report. Prior versions of the Income & Expenses Survey are also available at www.naahq.org/learn/income-and-expenses-survey.
