Marek Names New COO

Houston, Texas, February 6, 2015 – Mike Holland has recently been named to the position of Chief Operating Officer (COO) by The Marek Companies headquartered in Houston. Holland will oversee the operations for the award winning specialty subcontractor's offices in Houston, Dallas-Ft Worth, San Antonio, Austin and Atlanta.

"We selected Mike to provide the leadership and sustainability for our overall operations as we position the company for continued growth throughout our markets over the next decade," said Stan Marek, President and CEO of the Marek Family of Companies. "Holland, a proven leader with over 40 years of experience in the construction industry, has served the Marek Companies as the Houston Division President for the last 31 years."

In addition to his role with the company, Holland, who is married and has three children, currently serves on the boards of several industry organizations including the Association of Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) Houston Chapter, American Subcontractors Association (ASA) Houston Chapter and the Construction Career Collaborative (C3). He is a member of the Texas A&M Construction Industry Advisory Council and is involved in the community as a board member of the Greater Houston YMCA, the Foster Family YMCA and Covenant House Association.

Marek is a 77-year-old private, family owned specialty interior subcontractor that provides both commercial and residential construction services to major office, retail, healthcare and institutional clients.
