JE Dunn Construction Welcomes New Houston Leadership

HOUSTON, Texas. (April 17, 2018) – JE Dunn Construction, the 11th largest domestic general building contractor in the United States, is pleased to welcome Patrick Dennis as the new Houston office leader where he will oversee all operations in the Houston metropolitan area and southeast Texas.

Dennis is a graduate of Texas A&M University and brings over 22 years of construction experience to the Houston team. Prior to joining JE Dunn, Patrick was the president of construction for a prominent Houston development company where he created a solid reputation and record of accomplishment for building and leading top performing teams that produced optimum results.

Dennis has a very broad and diverse level of project type and delivery experience. His background includes the development of large high-rise multifamily projects to healthcare, historic renovations, retail, hospitality, gas and oil, corporate interiors, student housing and other institutional project types.

“We are very excited to welcome Patrick onboard in his new role,” says Greg Lorei, president of JE Dunn’s South Central region. “His exceptional people skills and diverse experience in both general contracting and development will bring a unique and innovative approach to our Houston operation and the clients we serve.”

Dennis embodies JE Dunn’s values and strategies. As a dynamic and creative leader, he is actively involved in the Houston community on both a business and personal level. Dennis is the coach of his boys’ basketball team and serves on the board of The Regis School. As the chairman of the buildings and grounds committee, he is instrumental in the school’s short and long-range facilities planning and the launching of a major capital project.

JE Dunn has been building in the Houston area since 1997 and is currently working on several notable projects including a vertical expansion for the UT Health Science Center, the University of Houston quadrangle student housing project and new STEM building, multiple projects for Harris County Health System, four Cy-Fair fire stations, The Harris County Veterinary Health, Adoption and Care Center, and will be breaking ground on new multi-family high rise later this spring. JE Dunn’s Houston office is located at 10350 Richmond Avenue, Suite 900, Houston, Texas 77042.
