The Institute of International Education (IIE) is among the world's largest and most experienced international education and exchange organizations. Founded in 1919, IIE is an independent not-for-profit dedicated to increasing the capacity of people to think and work on a global scale. More than 30,000 participants from 185 countries participate in IIE programs each year. These include the Fulbright Program, which IIE has administered on behalf of the U.S. Department of State since 1946. IIE also provides safe haven to persecuted scholars from around the world through IIE's Scholar Rescue Fund.® To date, 68 Fulbright alumni, IIE alumni, IIE trustees and advisers have received Nobel Prizes.
