

Product Line Addition – Heavy Haul

22 February 2017

Doepker Industries Ltd. is pleased to announce the addition of the Edmonton Trailer Manufacturing (ETM) product line to our portfolio. Dirk Woestenenk, previously General Manager at ETM, has joined the Doepker team as Heavy Haul Division Manager. The entire product line, including sliding tilt decks, low beds, crane dollies, jeeps, and boosters, will be manufactured and supported by Doepker and our authorized distribution locations.

"This is a great fit within the strategic growth plan of Doepker. We have been looking for ways to grow our capabilities and this addition enables us to supply a proven design to both new and existing customers," says Evan Doepker, President and Chief Executive Office of Doepker. "Dirk brings many years of experience in the industry. Having him join the Doepker team adds to our bench strength and will ensure that the integration process is successful."

Doepker Industries was established in 1948 and today is one of the leading manufacturers of semi-trailers in Canada. Doepker provides value added products to customers in the transportation industry in North America through an extensive distribution network. The company provides product to customers in the agricultural, commercial, gravel, logging, heavy haul, and energy sectors. Doepker has a long and proud history, and is supported by a committed workforce based in Saskatchewan.
