Combined Exams for Contractor Certifications

You no longer need to take multiple, individual exams for the higher levels of certification. We now have combined exams so you can take the exam for the level of certification you are seeking. The combined exams are longer and test on the same subject areas as the a la carte exams. You must pass the entire combined exam to meet the certification requirements.

The combined exams are for those who have not yet taken any level of PCP contractor certification exams. If you already started in the PCP taking a la carte exams, you can continue to do that.

The combined exams are made up of "parts". For example

2 part Installer Combined Exam =
Assistant Written Exam+Installer Written Exam

3 part Master Installer Combined Exam=
Assistant Exam+Installer Exam+Master Installer Exam

These new exams will save you both time and money!

The following combined exams are now available for SPF contractors:
