SprayWorks Equipment Group Launches New Website

Canton, OH October 19, 2015 – SprayWorks Equipment Group recently launched a revamped website at www.SprayWorksEquipment.com. Boasting clean and easy design, and in addition to their recently launched online store, this website will allow visitors to quickly navigate through products, industry information, and training.

SprayWorks' new online spray foam training offers free training for those looking for an introductory session of spray foam with full lessons, individual logins, and quizzes – scoring each trainee individually.
