

Morristown Utilities

Director of Communications

Morristown Utilities is currently seeking a driven individual to be responsible for monitoring, disseminating, and communicating organizational information to the media, public, and internal organization. Ideal candidates will possess experience with public relations and government affairs with a minimum of a Bachelor's degree in a related field. Preferred qualifications include experience in legal research, contracts, digital/social media, and knowledge of utility operations. Complete job description and qualifications can be obtained from www.musfiber.net along with MUC application form.