

Amanda Chandler, Amy Bryant, and Rebekah Coleman from Sunscape Apartments enjoying a chance to network with our membership. Amanda has been in our industry for a little over a year and Amy and Rebekah are new to our industry in 2015. Our industry and the RVAA welcome you!

The RVAA crew got together in December for our annual Holiday Cocktail Hour. We had a fantastic group attend and Stefano's on the Market was the perfect setting for socializing and networking with our friends and colleagues. It is exciting to see our attendance growing to these events!

Jacob Palmer and his lovely wife Karina talk with Bettina Altizer with Altizer and Altizer. Bettina has been a favored speaker of the association. She spoke to the membership in early 2015 about risk mamagement.

This is a group of veterans in our industry in the Roanoke, Lynchburg, and NRV. Cathy LaPrade is pictured with Stan and Marilyn Kingma. Cathy and Marilyn have both served on the RVAA board in past years and always bring an amazing amount of knowledge of our industry to the table. All three have been involved heavily throughout the years with RVAA and are often thought of as fixtures of the association. We appreciate their time and hard work throughout their membership.
