

Attention Leasing Consultants and Marketing Managers! Enroll in the NALP course April 22-23rd to earn your official NAA designation. This is a fantastic course and you will gain incredible knowledge from professionals in the industry. Go online to vamaonline.org to register.

We have a designation available for supplier members as well. This class will take place on March 10th in Richmond. You will gain insight into the challenges faced daily by many property managers. Courses in Fair Housing, Risk Management, Financial Management, and Management of Residential Issues are part of this designation. Go to vamaonline.org to register.

Perk up in the morning at South 16 on March 17th! Network with friends and colleagues while having coffee and breakfast provided by ServPro. The topic of this Morning Perk will discuss the economic development in Roanoke and also feature a speaker from Carilion Clinic and Medical Services. Economic development is essential to the growth of our industry and our local businesses. Your boss will be impressed with the take-aways you will bring back to your company. Sign up for this free event at vamaonline.org. We can't wait to see everyone there!
