

2017/18 Bursary & Scholarship Program

Since 1990, the WRLA has demonstrated its commitment to continuing education by offering scholarships and bursaries to selected applicants of WRLA member employees and their dependents.

Seven $1,500 bursaries and seven $3,000 scholarships per academic year may be awarded to selected applicants who have been accepted as of September 2017 for their first or second year of studies at a recognized University, College, or Technical Program.

- Full and part-time employees, owners and their dependents, of WRLA retail, affiliate and associate member companies are eligible to apply.
- The applicant must be under 25 years of age at the time of application and entering their first or second year of post-secondary education on a full time basis. Full time student is defined as a minimum 60% of a full course load.
- All employees must have been employed with the member firm for at least one year at the time of application and each member company must be a member of the WRLA for a minimum of twelve months prior to submission deadline.

Bursary (Definition)

Non-repayable sum of money presented to an eligible student who has demonstrated financial need and satisfactory academic record. Bursaries are awarded based primarily on financial need as opposed to academic merit.

Scholarship (Definition)

Non-repayable sum of money presented to an eligible student to help continue his/her studies. Scholarships are awarded based primarily on academic merit as opposed to financial need.

The Bursary and Scholarship Award Program may be altered, amended or discontinued at the discretion of the WRLA Board of Directors. The decision of the Scholarship and Bursary Selection Committee and the WRLA is final and not open to appeals. A recipient is limited to one bursary or scholarship award, therefore past recipients are not eligible to re-apply.

The following application is to be used for applying for a bursary or scholarship. The Bursary Program will be run in addition to and separately from the Scholarship Program. Applicants may be awarded either a bursary or scholarship, but not both. The WRLA will automatically submit unselected bursary applications to the scholarship program for review.
