VAUGHAN, ON, June 7, 2017 – TIMBER MART welcomes growing independent, Centre Jardin St-Césaire, a garden centre and building-material retailer in Saint-Césaire, Quebec to their group. Centre Jardin St-Césaire joins TIMBER MART for better buying power while being able to maintain their independence.

“In order to meet our customers’ needs, we’ve been expanding our business continuously since we opened in 2008; we’ve added product lines, categories, services and multiple greenhouses to our 246,000-square-foot property,” says Jean-François Ostiguy, owner of Centre Jardin St-Césaire. “To further grow our business, we joined a buying group that would offer us better buying power in our newly expanded categories and the independence we need to run our business our way.”

“Centre Jardin St-Césaire is a fiercely independent business that will benefit from the variety of buying programs we offer in their categories, as well as the freedom of choosing the marketing services that suit their unique business needs,” says Daniel Rioux, regional director of member services. “We welcome St-Césaire to our group and look forward to supporting their growing business.”

Centre Jardin St-Césaire has been serving contractors, landscapers and consumers of the Montérégie region with a wide variety of soils, flowers, trees and garden products since 2008. Throughout the years they’ve been in business, they’ve added five greenhouses to their property and widened their product offering with cement pavers, patio stones, pipes, and drains.
