TIMBER MART WELCOMES NEW MEMBER IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Modular Builder, Muchalat Construction Joins Group to Gain Competitive Advantage

VAUGHAN, ON, December 14, 2016 – TIMBER MART welcomes modular residential and commercial builder, Muchalat Construction Ltd. (Muchalat Construction) to their group. Serving residents and contractors of British Columbia's Vancouver Island for over 35 years, Muchalat Construction joins TIMBER MART to gain greater buying power and competitive advantage.

"With the many modular manufacturers in the area, it was essential that we join a group that could lend us the buying power needed to compete in our local market," says Joe Formosa, owner and president of Muchalat Construction. "As a TIMBER MART member, we know we'll buy right and gain competitive advantage to grow our market share."

"Muchalat Construction is a successful modular builder who will benefit tremendously from the wide variety of transparent building-material programs available to them as a member," says Phil Temple, TIMBER MART's regional director of member services for Western Canada. "We welcome them to the TIMBER MART family and look forward to supporting their growth on the Island."

Today, Muchalat Construction employs over 55 staff and operates two locations, a head office in Courtenay, B.C. and a 28,000-square-foot modular plant in Cumberland, B.C.
