ABOUT OUR KEYNOTE SPEAKER, KEN GRACE SPONSORED BY: BAYER

A faculty member in the College of Tropical Agriculture and Human Resources (CTAHR) since 1990, Dr. Grace serves as Associate Dean and Associate Director for Research, with overall responsibility for the college's $20 million+ research portfolio. He was employed in the pest control industry in California from 1975-1986, where he first became interested in pursuing a career in entomology (the study of insects). As an entomologist, Dr. Grace's personal research interests include the biology, behavior, ecology and management of urban and structural pests, with an emphasis on termites and wood protection. He has published over 280 technical articles, and is a frequent invited speaker at national and international conferences and symposia.

"GET THE ISLAND EXPERIENCE"

Sometimes called "The Gathering Place," Oahu certainly lives up to its name. The third largest Hawaiian island is home to the majority of Hawaii's diverse population, a fusion of east and west cultures rooted in the values and traditions of the Native Hawaiian people. It's this fundamental contrast between the ancient and the modern that makes discovering Oahu so enjoyable.

The clear blue waters of Kailua Beach meet the metropolitan cityscapes of Honolulu. The historic architecture of Iolani Palace meets the timeless memorials of Pearl Harbor. The big city of Waikiki meets the small town of Haleiwa on the North Shore. Whether you're hiking atop iconic Leahi (Diamond Head), enjoying some of Hawaii's best shopping, or simply unwinding on the sands of the island's beautiful beaches, you'll find variety at every turn on Oahu.
