HR Solutions

HR Solutions for Small Business

As a business owner, you are busy managing the day-to-day operations of your business and often don't have the time, resources or availability to set-up and manage your HR needs.

HR Program Setup - our turn-key HR Program is designed to meet your full HR requirements.

HR by Your Side - becoming your HR department or a supplement to your existing team, supporting the success of your business.

HR Solutions for Mid-Size Business

We will be an extension of your existing HR team, ensuring your HR programs and approaches are aligned with your Business Strategy.

HR Program Review - assisting you to ensure your HR requirements are set up to meet your business objectives

HR Mentor by Your Side - providing guidance and support for the development of your HR team

Organizational Development and Performance

Assisting your organization in the areas of Performance Management, Succession Planning, Change Management, Leadership Coaching, Mentoring, Organizational Structure Development, HR Strategic Planning and any customized HR assistance you may require.

Business Strategy & Implementation

We are dedicated to assisting your business in the creation of a clear business strategy, ensuring all activities are aligned to achieve success.

We will partner with you to develop your business plan and measures of success. Of equal importance is developing the plan for execution to bring your plan to life. We will work with you to align your company with the implementation of your Business Strategy.

Business Transition Solutions

We will guide you through the transition of your family business. As a business owner, you want to ensure that your business continues to succeed after you retire whether your children succeed you or you sell your business to others.

Our role is to guide you through the process of business transition. We will assist you in planning the transition, helping you realize top market value for your business, while recognizing the sensitivity of the family relationships within your business.
