

Welcome to BeingWell! It's more than just promotion of exercise and proper nutrition - it's about being proactive and taking accountability for your total wellbeing!

WRLA Members and their employees are part of the BeingWell community where you receive:

- Unlimited, 24/7 access to tools and resources that help you improve your total health and build your personal network of wellness connections!
- An intuitive layout of the portal to simplify navigation and allow you to find what you're looking for - fast!
- @BeingWellSocial feed on Twitter and Facebook to provide helpful tips and resource links right to your daily news feed - no search required!
- The ability to customize a BeingWell portal for your own organization exclusively! Host your own benefits and/or retirement plan details, feature sections that address your employees' health risk areas and receive your own activity reports to demonstrate the value of this program within your organization.
