Reasons for this report

✓ Our analysis of the most recent weekly US lodging results

Lodging: US RevPAR +7% y/y last week, +17% vs. 2019. Easter Holiday shift helps Group demand y/y and vs. 2019

Overall U.S. RevPAR was +6.6% y/y for the week ending 4/22/2023, per STR, down from the prior week's result of +8.6%, and below the trailing 10-week average of +8.2%. Versus 2019, RevPAR was +17.4%, slightly up from the prior week's result of +17.1%, and above the trailing 10-week average of +12.9%.

Last week's results reflected easy comps due to the April holiday shifts in 2019/2022/2023. Easter Sunday fell at the start of 2022's and 2019's comparable weeks, resulting in high Group-driven RevPAR growth in 2023 (Group RevPAR was +47.1% y/y vs. running 28-day average of +8.9%, and +40.9% vs. 2019 compared to running 28-day average of -8.2%).

As a reminder on the impact of holiday calendar shifts to weekly lodging results, the timing of the Spring holidays significantly impact travel patterns where business travel is light during holiday weeks and more robust in the weeks prior to and after the holidays. We strongly discourage looking at the last few weeks' data versus prior weeks as an indicator of softening or strengthening travel trends.

As a rule of thumb when analyzing the weekly data, if Group results are abnormally strong or weak, which they were last week, there is a holiday shift going on.

For the comparable 2019 and 2022 weeks, Easter Sunday fell towards the start of the week. Given lower business travel during holiday weeks, we are not surprised by the stronger y/y and 4-year results. Comps should re-normalize in a few weeks.

Major RevPAR statistics presented below:

- Luxury RevPAR: -1.8% y/y and +18.0% versus 2019;
- Upper Upscale RevPAR: +15.4% y/y and +18.9% versus 2019;
- Upscale RevPAR: +13.0% y/y and +14.1% versus 2019;
- Upper Midscale RevPAR: +7.1% y/y and +15.3% versus 2019;
- Midscale RevPAR: +0.4% y/y and +12.0% versus 2019;
- Economy RevPAR: -2.6% y/y and +10.0% versus 2019;
- Independent hotels (~ 1/3rd of the data set) RevPAR: -0.2% y/y and +16.7% versus 2019; and
- Within Upper Upscale & Luxury class hotels:
  - Group: +47.1% y/y vs. +26.7% prior week; versus 2019: +40.9% vs +16.6% prior week.
  - Transient: -7.5% y/y vs. -2.3% prior week; versus 2019: +11.6% vs +12.7% prior week.
- Las Vegas RevPAR: +18.0% y/y and +33.5% versus 2019.
  - $\circ\,$  As a caveat, we note that many large Strip casino hotel operators do not participate in STR's survey.

Last week's RevPAR details and sequential trends (all comparable information on new STR methodology):

- Headline RevPAR was +6.6% y/y vs. the running 28-day average of +4.6% y/y.
- Occupancy: Absolute occupancy was 67.2% vs. 64.7% for the running 28-day average.
- Absolute Group occupancy: 26.3% last week vs. 19.9% for the running 28 days.

The Lodging stocks: Similar to the past year in lodging (and many other) stocks, we see "macro over micro" at the moment. We see the main driver/wildcard coming from the economic impact from interest rates and inflation (and perhaps more importantly investor sentiment around these). While the risks from COVID are not zero (e.g. China reopening impact to the worldwide economy and outbound Chinese travel), we believe COVID issues are now secondary to macroeconomic considerations for most investors and for public company executives. We see Hyatt (Buy) as the relative outperformer in our lodging coverage universe for a host of reasons, including continued Caribbean/leisure outperformance and upcoming accretive asset sales. Leisure travel demand and pricing continues to show significant strength in 2023, a positive read-through for all-inclusive resorts (Buy-rated PLYA, H) and Vacation Ownership (Buy-rated BVH, HGV, TNL, VAC), and Wellness (OSW, Buy, Miller). While we have three Buy-rated Lodging REITS, (PK, RLJ [Miller], RHP), we have a neutral to cautious view on our broader Lodging REIT sector coverage, with Hold-rated DRH, HST, PEB (Miller), and SHO, a view driven by potential downside pressures on revenues and particularly on operating profit margins.

Truist Securities Rating System for Equity Securities

Truist Securities, Inc. ("Truist Securities") rates individual equities using a three-tiered system. Each stock is rated relative to the broader market (generally the S&P 500) over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated).

Buy (B) – the stock's total return is expected to outperform the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Hold (H) – the stock's total return is expected to perform in line with the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Sell (S) – the stock's total return is expected to underperform the S&P 500 or relevant benchmark over the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated)

Not Rated (NR) - Truist Securities does not have an investment rating or opinion on the stock

Coverage Suspended (CS) - indicates that Truist Securities' rating and/or target price have been temporarily suspended due to applicable regulations and/or Truist Securities Management discretion. The previously published rating and target price should not be relied upon.

Truist Securities analysts have a price target on the stocks that they cover, unless otherwise indicated. The price target represents that analyst's expectation of where the stock will trade in the next 12-18 months (unless otherwise indicated). If an analyst believes that there are insufficient valuation drivers and/or investment catalysts to derive a positive or negative investment view, they may elect with the approval of Truist Securities Research Management not to assign a target price; likewise certain stocks that trade under $5 may exhibit volatility whereby assigning a price target would be unhelpful to making an investment decision. As such, with Research Management's approval, an analyst may refrain from assigning a target to a sub-$5 stock.
