

California League of Food Processors

Our members spend $8.5 billion on products and services your company provides.

The CLFP Advantage

- The California League of Food Processors (CLFP) represents 95% of fruit and vegetable processors in California, including 100% of processors of tomatoes, peaches, pears and olives.
- Nationally, CLFP represents more than one-third of all fruit and vegetable processors.

Who We Are

Established in 1905, CLFP represents the business interests of California's dynamic food processing industry. Our food processing members supply the nation's consumers with premium quality fruits, vegetables, juices, sauces, cheeses, snacks, nuts, seasonings, and many other foods. They are available in every package type and size imaginable.

Member Profile

CLFP members include top-level food processor executives, food processor company personnel/managers and industry suppliers who operate more than 150 processing plants throughout California. CLFP's current membership includes the most powerful brand names in the United States food business, as well as the largest producers of private label and institutional food products.

Reinforce your marketing message among these decision makers by participating in CLFP's print and online resources.

IN PRINT AND ONLINE — Reach CLFP members throughout the year!

2011-2012 Membership & Committee Directory

Our annual Membership Directory features up-to-date contact information for all CLFP processor and supplier members. Members rely upon this who's who guide as a year-round purchasing and networking tool.

BONUS DISTRIBUTION of the directory goes to all tradeshows CLFP attends throughout the year, including Process Expo.

Membership & Committee Directory—DIGITAL EDITION

Our digital edition is posted on the CLFP website for members and is available to non-members for purchase. Extend your print investment with the unique benefits of digital media.
