THE BERGEN INTERNATIONAL DIVING SEMINAR

2019 - 13th/14th November

This years topic: «Are we adapting to a volatile market?»

NUI AS, on behalf of The Association of Operators for Hyperbaric Lifeboat Reception Facilities (OFHB) will hold the 26th Bergen International Diving Seminar on the 13th and 14th of November 2019. For the 2019 seminar we are aiming to have similar success as in the previous 25 events and hope to achieve more participants this year as we had in 2017 when 169 delegates from 77 Companies and Organisations enjoyed two very good days in Bergen listening to the 28 speakers and participating in lively discussions relating to the diving industry.

In 2019 the slogan for the seminar will be “Are we adapting to a volatile market?” the presenters from authorities, research institutions, major operators and contractors will be challenged to tell their view on this. In addition to the presentations there will be an exhibition area for a limited number of exhi-
