About Breakfast at Clean

A highlight of the early morning gathering is the announcement of election results for three director positions on the 2020 ARTA Board of Directors. In addition, ARTA President Brendan O’Neill will give a brief update on the association before presenting the 2019 Nate Belkin Award for Excellence in Marketing Reusable Textiles, along with a few service awards.

We hope you will join us, enjoy a hot breakfast, and network with your peers before hitting the show floor. Questions? Email Nancy at njenkins@ARTA1.com.

ARTA’s mission is to create greater appreciation and demand for reusable textiles. Founded in 1982 by Nathan Belkin, PhD, ARTA membership is open to all in the textile services industry. Its members represent the entire industry and include allied associates, suppliers, manufacturers and commercial, institutional, and cooperative laundry operators.
