This message was sent to ##Email##

December 7, 2017

Art Therapy Today

Home | About Us | FAQ | Membership | Advocacy | Education & Careers | Conferences

Subscribe | Archive

Search Past Issues View Web Version

Advertise

AATA NEWS

Featured Member: Introducing AATA's New President

Christianne Strang, PhD, ATR-BC

AATA National Office

The AATA is very pleased to introduce our new Board President as this week's Featured Member. She shares her vision for the Association and some of her personal passions in the interview below. Christianne Strang PhD, ATR-BC, was sworn in as Board President of the American Art Therapy Association on November 11, 2017. Dr. Strang has 30 years of clinical art therapy experience and currently provides art therapy services to individuals in treatment for anorexia and bulimia. She is also a research instructor in the Department of Psychology at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB), where she teaches graduate and undergraduate courses in behavioral neuroscience, developmental neuroscience and introduction to creative arts therapies. READ MORE

Five Videos Added to the Art Therapy in Action Series

AATA National Office

In our video series, Art Therapy in Action, thoughtleaders in the field talk about how the unique and integrative properties of art therapy can enrich lives, support personal and relational treatment goals, address community concerns, and advance societal and ecological change. READ MORE

Professional Doctorate in Art Therapy

Transform your passion into an advanced career in art therapy with Mount Mary University's low residency/hybrid doctoral program for working professionals.

Please Continue to Support #ArtTherapyRelief for our Communities through 🕇 🖤 🛅 🔤 the End of the Year!

AATA National Office

"I'm donating because I think art allows us to find beauty and strength in the moments when darkness tries to overcome light."

With your help, we've raised a total of $1,335 to support art therapy for communities recovering from disasters. We will continue to raise funds through December 31, 2017. This means that there's still time to donate directly or to create a personal fundraiser to assist the AATA in the development of art therapy events for relief and recovery efforts in devastated communities. READ MORE

Public Comment Deadline Approaching for Revisions to the ATCB Code of Ethics

AATA National Office

The Art Therapy Credentials Board (ATCB) has made minor revisions to the ATCB Code of Ethics, Conduct, and Disciplinary Procedures, and the ATCB Board of Directors invites credentialed art therapists as well as members of the public to review the proposed revisions and send comments by Dec. 15, 2017. Responses may be submitted by email, atchinfo@atch.org, or by postal mail: ATCB, Attn: Code Revisions, 7 Terrace Way, Greensboro, NC 27403.

ART THERAPY IN THE NEWS

Ethical code spotlight — Considering our personal and professional responsibilities

The ATCB Review

During challenging political and social times, it is difficult to remain indifferent. Accordingly, and most notably within the past decade, art therapy professionals have called upon themselves and others to consider roles as social justice advocates. As a result, art therapists have become more aware of how art therapy practices may be utilized to promote societal change and have documented these methods and examples in our discipline's literature. READ MORE

Finding therapy isn't easy for queer and trans people of color

Therapy is an overwhelmingly white profession, one that can be insensitive to the needs of those with intersectional identities. This is how QTPOC find therapy that helps, rather than hurts. READ MORE

What to expect before starting therapy

In Public Safety

If you've never received professional mental healthcare before, you likely have many questions about how treatment can help those in your profession. Fortunately, there are clinicians who offer trauma-informed care that takes into account the unique recovery needs of first responders. READ MORE

Summer course helps budding researchers get their feet wet

UAB Magazine

The lab responsible for launching hundreds of high-tech research careers carries the faint whiff of old fish. Open the door, and you'll understand why: white sand beach, blue waves, sea breezes and spectacular sunsets. For two decades, Dauphin Island Sea Lab on Alabama's Gulf coast has been the summer home for UAB's Introduction to Neurobiology. That's the course that acquaints new neuroscience graduate students with classic experiments, state-of-the-art equipment, UAB research luminaries, and — perhaps most important — each other. READ MORE

The AATA's Art Therapy Today includes a digest of the most important news selected for the AATA from thousands of sources. Guest articles may be submitted to Clara Keane at ckeane@arttherapy.org. Publication of any guest article is at the sole discretion of the AATA. The opinions expressed and/or contents of guest articles, advertisements, and external links included in any AATA publication do not represent the positions or policies of the AATA. The AATA makes no warranty or representation concerning the accuracy of such content.

SUGGESTED COMPANIES

Caldwell University @caldwelluniversity

The first CACREP accredited program of this type in the nation. Fulfills educational requirements in both art therapy and mental health counseling. Read more

Benjamin Moore @Benjamin_Moore

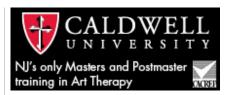

Visit an authorized Benjamin Moore Retailer to make sure you get the best paint and advice. Read more

GE Healthcare @GEHealthcare

We provide medical technologies and services that are shaping a new age of patient care.

Read more

M.A. Counseling
Art THerapy Specialization

▶ Promoted by Caldwell University

Healthcare Collaboration

▶ Promoted by GE Healthcare

Art Therapy Today

Connect with AATA

Recent Issues | Subscribe | Unsubscribe | Advertise | Web Version

Colby Horton, Vice President of Publishing, 469-420-2601 | Download media kit Hope Barton, Content Editor, 469-420-2680 | Contribute news Clara Keane, AATA Content Editor, 703-548-5862 | Submit an article

American Art Therapy Association

4875 Eisenhower Avenue, Suite 240 | Alexandria, VA 22304 | 888-290-0878 | Contact Us

Learn how to add us to your safe sender list so our emails get to your inbox.

Powered By MULTIBRIEFS

7701 Las Colinas Ridge, Ste. 800, Irving, TX 75063