

Executive Director Announcement – Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance (SCGA)

Shannon Doka joins SCGA as Executive Director on June 21, 2019

(June 21, 2019) – Luis Wilson, President of the Saskatchewan Common Ground Alliance (SCGA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Shannon Doka as the new Executive Director for the SCGA.

Shannon recently retired from SaskEnergy where in addition to her responsibilities as a Community Involvement Leader she was an active member of the SCGA Public Awareness and Education Committee. During her time with this Volunteer Committee she worked to develop strategies to ensure the successful implementation of the Annual Safety Awareness Contractors breakfasts and coordinated the logistics for each location.

Commenting on the new appointment, Luis, stated:

"I am extremely pleased that Shannon has accepted the Board's offer to become the Executive Director of the SCGA. We believe that her previous experience as a Community Involvement Leader with SaskEnergy will be a great benefit to us in advancing the organization."

Shannon will focus on increasing awareness of the "Dig Safe" message, grow the SCGA membership and provide new communication and education initiatives that will reduce incidents in Saskatchewan and make it a safer place to work.

Luis also extended appreciation to outgoing Executive Director Sally Cain. Sally served as Executive Director since May 2017.

The SCGA is a member driven organization dedicated to ensuring worker and public safety, environmental protection and the integrity of services by promoting effective damage prevention practices in connection with underground infrastructure activities.
