

Corcoran Consulting Group Welcomes John Oronzo
as Managing Consultant, Home Care

North Haven, Conn., April 22, 2025 -- Corcoran Consulting Group is pleased to welcome John Oronzo as Managing Consultant, Home Care. Oronzo brings more than two decades of transformational leadership with publicly traded and privately owned home care operations.

Prior to joining the Corcoran team, Oronzo served as vice president of operations for Modivcare PCS Homecare, accountable for all branch-level operations and results for 23 offices in Connecticut and New Jersey. His responsibilities at Modivcare included daily operations, profit and loss, key performance indicator analysis and improvement, growth planning, regulatory compliance, market expansion, mergers and acquisitions, development and management of budgets and action plans, and investigation, resolution, and prevention of patient complaints.

Prior to his position at Modivcare, Oronzo was vice president of operations/behavioral health for Elara Caring Home Health Care, leading all multi-state behavioral health operations for twelve Elara offices.

Before its acquisition by Elara Caring, Oronzo was corporate director of human resources at National Home Health Care, leading the organization's human resource administration in Connecticut, New York Massachusetts and New Jersey. He also served as director of Human Resources for New England Home Care, directing human resource functions for more than 1,000 employees in Connecticut.

Oronzo earned his bachelor's in business administration with a major in hospitality management from the University of New Haven, where he has served as a labor relations guest lecturer. He has served as a member and co-chair of the Connecticut Hospital Association Human Resources Special Interest Group, as a member of the Connecticut Healthcare Human Resources Association, as a former director and member of the New Jersey Homecare Association Board of Directors, Connecticut Health Care Workers Compensation Trust and the New Jersey Homecare and Hospice Association.

About Corcoran Consulting Group

Corcoran Consulting Group is a team of experienced care-at-home industry leaders, executives, and experts, who've done what their clients do. They provide operational, financial, growth and exit solutions for home-based care providers who seek proven results.

They focus on four areas: home health, hospice, non-medical home care and mergers & acquisitions. Corcoran gets you ready: Ready to deal with the challenges you're facing today and the changes you'll face tomorrow.

Learn more at corcoranconsultants.com, email HH@corcoranconsultants.com or call 203.691.1319.

###

Media Contact:

Jenny Smith

Acuity Public Relations LLC

Email: jenny@acuitypr.com

Phone: (860) 328-0212