WEST CONSULTANTS, INC. ANNOUNCES NEW PRESIDENT

Martin Teal, P.E., P.H., D.WRE, has been promoted to president of WEST Consultants, Inc. Teal joined the firm as hydraulic engineer in 1993 and has served as senior vice president for the last five years. He succeeds founding president, Jeffrey Bradley, Ph.D., P.E., D.WRE, who passed away unexpectedly in September 2020. “I’m excited to build upon the legacy of technical expertise and client service for which WEST is known within the industry,” said Teal.

WEST Consultants, Inc. is an internationally-recognized specialized water resources engineering firm and Small Business with offices in Arizona, California, Oregon, Texas, and Washington. WEST has a staff of more than 50 highly-trained engineering and scientific professionals.

To the editor: WEST is an acronym that stands for Water – Environmental – Sedimentation – Technology. If we are provided the opportunity to be printed in your publication, we would appreciate having the acronym printed in all caps. Thank you. WEST Consultants, Inc.
