About Gilgal and HomeAid Atlanta

Gilgal is a residential program for homeless women with drug and/or alcohol addictions. Gilgal assists women in breaking the cycle of defeat that led them to addiction and replaces it with a cycle of victorious living through Christ. Addressing the whole person, Gilgal has programs that heal women spiritually, physically and emotionally. Services offered include: Bible Study; AA, CA, NA meetings; Relapse Prevention; Fitness Instruction; Health and Wellness programs; Interviewing and Resume skills; and Individual Counseling. Gilgal accepts women without regard to race, nationality or religious creed.

HomeAid Atlanta is the designated charity of the Greater Atlanta HBA. HomeAid's mission is to build and maintain dignified housing where homeless families and individuals can rebuild their lives. Learn more at www.HomeAidAtlanta.org.
