DAY 1: Bankruptcy Basics for New & Returning Bankruptcy Attorneys

Date: Thursday, November 3rd

Time: 1:00 PM - 5:15 PM Eastern

Presenters: Rachel Foley, Esq., Kara Gendron, Esq., & Jim Haller, Esq.

Why you should attend DAY 1: Bankruptcies are gradually increasing again. While many Americans paid down debt in 2020-2021 with stimulus checks and forbearance on student loans and rent, consumer debt is now on the rise. Federal student loan payments will recommence beginning January 1, 2023. This session is designed to get you and your staff ready to service clients in 2023 who are in financial distress.

DAY 2: Advanced Bankruptcy Basics for New & Returning Bankruptcy Attorneys

Date: Friday, November 4th

Time: 1:00 PM - 5:15 PM Eastern

Presenters: Jenny Doling, Esq., Stephen Berken, Esq., & Cathy Moran, Esq.

Why you should attend DAY 2: To maintain your competitive edge you need the most advanced information. Our panelists have combined experience of over 75 years of successful consumer bankruptcy practice. Since bankruptcies are gradually increasing again you need to stay current. Consumer debt is now on the rise. Federal student loan payments will recommence beginning January 1, 2023. Don't get caught flat footed. Instead, stay informed and be ready for the next wave of cases.
