

Retirement Announcement: Barry Steinberg, Chief Executive Officer, Consulting Engineers of Ontario

The Board of Directors announces that Barry Steinberg will be retiring as Chief Executive Officer of Consulting Engineers of Ontario effective February 23, 2018.

Since joining CEO in 2010 Barry has successfully driven an aggressive strategic plan, focused on improving the visibility and influence of CEO with government and clients. Barry has worked tirelessly on numerous committees and boards representing the interests of CEO members, including chairing the Construction and Design Alliance of Ontario for two terms.

Through Barry's leadership CEO's reputation as a trusted solutions provider to key stakeholders has been strengthened, and the importance of professional engineering services provided to the public and private sectors has been reinforced. In characteristic fashion, he remains committed to ensuring the continued success of CEO moving forward and over the next six months will help ensure that leadership is positioned to continue the positive changes CEO's members and stakeholders have achieved.

Rex Meadley, CEO's Chairman of the Board extends on behalf of the membership, Board of Directors and staff, best wishes to Barry on his retirement and wholehearted thanks for all he has done for Consulting Engineers of Ontario.
