

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR INDIGENOUS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

The VJKF Program offers Indigenous high school students in grades 11 an opportunity to spend one week being a STEM researcher at a Canadian university!

Application Requirements

- Signed Guardian Consent Form
- Reference Letter from Teacher or Guidance Counsellor
- 400 word personal essay
- Grade 11 High School Student
- Applicant self identifies as First Nations, Métis or Inuit

Programs Run from May to August

Apply Today Online at:
www.vjkgf.ca

DEADLINE TO APPLY:
DECEMBER 19TH 2025

Thanks to our generous donors our Program is offered to Indigenous students FREE of charge. For complete details about our Program and application process, please visit our website.

Program at a Glance

Indigenous Resources

Visit university Indigenous Centres and see what services and supports are available for Indigenous students on campus.

Hands-on Learning

Students get to conduct hands-on research in a university lab under the supervision of their mentors.

Campus Life

Students work with professors attend campus tours and live in residence. It is a real representation of university life.

info@vjkgf.org
www.vernakirkness.org

(587) 814-0444