

Damage Prevention Technician (DPT) Training Program

It has become clear that it would be challenging to implement health recommendations like social distancing and proper cleaning protocols, at the various DPT training facilities.

Therefore, Kim Sheppard will be reaching out to those who have registered for any upcoming courses to inform them of course suspension.

The ORCGA looks forward to a time when classes will resume. Please monitor this web page for future updates:

<https://orcga.com/damage-prevention-training/training-dates/>