

PRESS RELEASE

January 21, 2019

Brown, Edwards & Company, L.L.P. announces Virginia McMahan, CPA has earned the designation of Certified Construction Industry Financial Professional (CCIFP) through the Institute of Certified Construction Industry Financial Professionals, Inc. which is associated with the Construction Financial Management Association. This distinguished certification is earned through competency testing administered by the Institute in the areas of construction accounting and reporting, income recognition methods, budgeting and planning, risk management, taxes, human resource, legal, information technology, and joint ventures. Ms. McMahan becomes the eighth member of the firm's Construction Services Group with this designation.

For more details about Brown Edwards, visit www.BEcpas.com.

#