Glass Named Brethren Mutual President & CEO

Assumes New Roles January 1, 2023

Hagerstown, Maryland (December 15, 2022) – Brethren Mutual Insurance Company is pleased to announce that Robert F. Glass has been named President & CEO, effective January 1, 2023. He succeeds Mike Brashears who will retire as President & CEO on December 31, 2022 after a 44-year career with the Company.

With an insurance career spanning over 35 years, Glass brings a combination of experience, values, and leadership ability to the position. Joining Brethren Mutual in October 2017 as the Company's Director of Underwriting, Glass was promoted to Managing Director of Underwriting and Marketing in November 2018 and subsequently promoted to Vice President of Underwriting and Marketing in April 2020.

Glass received a Bachelor's degree in Business & Finance from Mount St. Mary's University (Emmitsburg, MD) and an MBA from Colorado State University. Additionally, he holds the CPCU (Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter) and ARM (Associate in Risk Management) professional insurance designations.

As Brethren Mutual's seventh leader in the Company's history, Glass looks forward to leading Brethren Mutual into the future and maintaining the Company's financial stability to remain a competitive insurance market for agency partners and provide peace of mind to policyholders.

Robert F. Glass, MBA, CPCU, ARM
